American Woolen Co. to Name Higher Prices on Women's Wear Fabrics.

It is believed that this week will be harked by a series of announcements of advances in prices of spring woolen and worsted fabrics. The American Woolen and the United States Worsted Company already have advanced prices on their men's wear goods, and advances in the price of the American Woolen Company's women's wear fabrics are expected almost any day. The other leading factor has not as yet opened its women's wear lines. Price action by the leading factor was a source of great large companies was a source of great relief to numerous independents who have long complained of the comparatively low prices on their spring fabrics but hesitated to revise their prices until the leading factors acted.

Carpet Prices Up 5 Per Cent.

Alexander Smith & Sons Carpet Co.
opened yesterday its spring lines of rugs and carpetings at prices showing maximum advances over July prices of 5 per cent. A record number of buyers attended the showing of the new lines and the initial orders placed reached a larger total than for any previous opening day in the company's history. Other manufacturers opened their lines early last week at prices ranging from 7 to 10 per cent. above previous figures.

Confidence in Blouse Trade.

Biouse manufacturers and wholesalers have not let their confidence desert them, although current business is far from brisk. They are in sanguine expectation of a healthy business within the next month because of the chary buying done by retailers at the beginning of the manufacturers and wholesalers that business strengthened the belief among manufacturers and wholesalers that business will be good soon.

Active Print Cloth Market.

The local gray goods market yesterday was fairly active, with prices holding strong. Several good orders calling for delivery well into the first quarter of next year were received by a local house. Most concerns, however, refuse to take orders for delivery further ahead than December. A leading commission house reported that it had received a telegram from Fall River telling of an exceptionally good business in print cloths at prices from an eighth to a quarter of a cent advance over previous quotations. Transactions up to mid-day, according to the telegram, involved 102,000 pieces, for the five days of last week. In finished goods, a number of Southern dress gingham lines for next spring already have been sold up and withdrawn from sale, while a few more lines have been opened.

Raw Silk Up 15 Cents a Pound.

Prices in the Yokohama raw silk market continued to ascend, the net advance for the day amounting to 49 yen. In the local market quotations soared from 10 to 15 cents a pound. Transactions again were heavy in the Japanese market, while trading locally also expanded. Local manufacturers are complaining about the high prices and are reluctant to commit themselves for more than just their immediate or nearby needs. On the other hand, self-red from the confident that prices will respond to the remaining about the high prices and are reluctant to commit themselves for more than just their immediate or nearby needs.
